Pro Men/Women Qualifications

Qualification: A rider must race 6 Qualifiers during the 2015 SSA Florida Cup Series plus the Championship race.

Rankings: A riders best 6 races in the series plus the 2015 Championship race.

Points: SSA Pro Points System (see back)

Amateur Qualifications: Plate Series

- To have your best chance of earning a low SSA number plate in Florida, a rider should race a minimum of 8 single point local races plus 4 SSA Cup Qualifiers (double points) plus the SSA Cup Championship Race (double points).
- Single point local races can be earned at any track in Florida between November 1-December 15, 2014 and through January 1-April 15, 2015.
- Local bonus points are available. One point will be added to your season total for each local race over the 8 minimum and up to a maximum of 12 local races. This adds a maximum of 4 bonus points.
- The minimum races needed to qualify for year end awards (SSA number plate) is a total of 9 races. A minimum of 2 races have to be SSA qualifiers and 1 must be the SSA championship. Please note a riders chance of earning a low number plate is limited with just 9 races.
- SSA Cup Qualifiers and Cup Championship are double points (see table).
- In the event a rider has more than 4 SSA Cup Qualifiers, only the best 4 will count towards their ranking points.
- A rider can compete in the SSA Cup Championship race and compete for the award of the day in any class, cruiser or open. There is no qualifying necessary to compete, only to be eligible to win a ranking and number plate.
- All riders who race the SSA Championship race and are qualified will receive a number plate and trophy at the award ceremony held Sunday after the championship.
